Comrade P. Jaswanth Rao

Com. Jaswantha Rao, the CEC Member, Editor of Party's Central English Organ, the Class Struggle and the Secretary of TARIMELA NAGI REDDY MEMORIAL TRUST has breathed his last on Aug 27th, 2020 in a Hospital at Hyderabad owing to corona and serious lung ailment. In 50 years of his revolutionary political life he performed various responsibilities with unflinching Marxist Leninist ideological convictions, dedication, intellectual caliber and untiring hard work he edited the Central and played an important role in the development of Party and revolutionary movement. In his study, analysis and method of explaining the complex ideological, political and economic questions and in imparting political education to the party ranks and people through writings and speeches, he was guided by Comrade TN's approach and style. So, he was an invaluable asset to the party and entire Communist and Revolutionary Movement.

The CC, CPI (ML) pays its heartfelt revolutionary tributes to our departed Comrade. We pledge to carry forward the tasks he left for us to the end. Our deep condolences to Com. Sheshamma, his life partner who stood by him all through his political life and also to their children who love and respected Com.Jaswant's political life.
