

“Comrade Khokan Mazumdar continues to be Inspiration for Us”

Speakers at the Condolence Meeting Paid revolutionary Tributes

Kolkata:18-7-2017

The condolence meeting of Comrade Khokan Mazumdar organized by the Central committee of CPI(ML) was held at State Youth Centre, Moulali, Kolkata on 18 July 2017.

The meeting was presided over by com. Khudan Mallick, who participated in Naxalbari uprising. Other participants like Santi Munda, Suniti Viswakarmarkar were on the dais. Com. Alope Mukherjee called the speakers on to the dais.

The condolence meeting was started with the singing of a song on Martyrs by com. Meghanadh. The leaders of various political parties and CPI (ML) placed floral wreaths before the photo of com. Khokan Mazumdar. The meeting observed one minute silence condoling the death of com. Khokan Mazumdar.

Comrades Arvind Sinha, CCM, CPI(ML); Samisti Das of CPI; Sushant Jha, CCM, CPI(ML)ND; Kartik Pal, CPI(ML) Liberation; Sukhendu Sarkar of Sramik Kisan Sanghatan; G.Vijayakumar, CCM, CPI(ML); Ketan Mishra of SUCI; Sailen Bhattacharjee of PCC,CPI(ML);Goutam Chatarjee, artist; P.Jaswantha Rao, Editor, Class struggle; Shambhu Mahato, CCM,CPI(ML); Raghunandan biswas; Sadhan Biswas and Subodh Mitra CCM,CPI(ML) paid revolutionary tributes to the departed leader.

The speakers remembered the life of parentless boy, Abdul Hamid which transformed him into Khokan Da and put him on the path of leading a long political life with communist ideology. His simple life and mingling with the people are exemplary for the younger generation. Many a time he faced repression and jailed, it never dented his conviction in the communist ideology and people. He was one of the leaders of Naxalbari uprising along with comrades Kanu Sanyal, Charu Mazumdar, Keshav Sarkar and Jangal Santhal. He struggled against and refuted revisionism and neo-revisionism. After coming out of jail he worked among the adivasi people in Jharkand, who fondly remember him till today as Sunil da. Though he left us physically, he will always remain as our inspiration in our revolutionary work and strengthen our conviction in the communist ideology. Making success of new democratic revolution in India will be a fitting tribute to Com. Khokan Mazumdar and many other martyr comrades, the speakers said.

The meeting concluded with singing of revolutionary songs and The Internationale by comrades Basu, Om Prakash and others.

*****