

In the Midst Of Covid Havoc, Red Flags Hoisted at Many Places in AP and Telangana

In spite of the crisis created by corona, the historic International Day of working class, May Day was observed at several places in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana states. Several local trade unions and mass organizations observed the Mayday by conducting several meetings and by hoisting red flags.

In Anantapur, red flag was hoisted by Com. C. Peddanna (State President AIFTU,(NEW) at Com. TN Bhavan,and at many other places in Anantapur Town. In Nellore District the May Day was observed at various places of Nellore and in Venkatagiri town. At Sunday market Com.J.Kishore babu (State General Secretary of AIFTU (new) hoisted the red flag. In Prakasam district workers. weavers and peasants observed the May Day in villages and towns. In Guntur district Mirchi yard workers of Guntur and limestone kilns workers of Piduguralla observed the Mayday. The Democratic Weaving Workers Union affiliated to AIFTU (New) organised several meetings at centres of weavers like Manglagiri,Peteru,Vetapalem,Venkatagiri and in various parts of A.P. In Krishna Distract at Machilipatnam, the Hamali Workers Union and Auto Workers Union belonging to AIFTU (NEW) took active part in conducting the May Day meetings.

The Raithu Coolie Sangham (affiliated to AIKMKS) observed the May Day at various places in Andhra Pradesh. Agency Girijana Sangham affiliated to RCS (A.P) observed May Day in various tribal centers of West Godavari district. The Quarry and Crusher Workers Union observed May Day at Anakapalli of Visakha District, and Devarapalli of West Godavari Dist.

In Vijayangaram District at Pusapatirega, where several pharma companies are situated, the workers of pharmaceutical companies observed the May Day. At Kothavalsa. the Jute Factory Union affiliated to AIFTU (NEW) observed the May Day. Com Ganesh Panda (State Vice President of AIFTU (NEW)) hoisted the red flag. At Vijayangaram town the Auto Workers Union and Factory Workers Unions affiliated to AIFTU (NEW) organised and observed May Day in several places. At Parvathipuram, Makkuva, and other places the Raithu Coolie Sangham .A.P organised several May Day meetings, and Com. D.Varma(State Joint Secretary RCS (AP) hoisted red flags. At Bobbili, the Bobbili Kalasi (Hamali) Sangham observed the Mayday.

In the 13 districts of Andhra Pradesh May Day was observed at more than 110 places and several street and gate meetings were organised in this Covid havoc time by taking all precautions. In all these meetings the leaders explained to the people about the historical importance of the May Day and the necessity of the New Democratic Revolution. They exposed the real nature of the present ruling classes and their exploitive attitudes in this Covid situation and appealed to the people to unite and fight against the pro-feudal and imperialist exploitive machinations of the present rulers.

Telangana State : In Telangana state at various places the May Day was observed. In Warangal Rural dist at Narsampet area the Mill and Hamali Workers union, Tractor Drivers Union, the Brick Workers Unions affiliated to AIFTU (NEW) observed the May Day. Com. Modem Mallesh (State President AIFTU (NEW)) hoisted red flag at Narsampet. At Bavupet of Karimnagar district where huge granite and stone crushers are concentrated the May Day was observed. The red flag was hoisted at several places in Karmnagar rural areas. At Sirisilla the Cloth Dyeing Workers Union observed the May Day. In Nizamabad on behalf of Telangana Raithu Coolie Sangham May Day was observed. Com. Gangula Narsayya hoisted the red flag.

-Class Struggle Reporter