

Paris Commune – 150th Anniversary in Patna

Eight revolutionary organizations working on the land of Bihar jointly organized a ceremony at the IMA Auditorium in Patna on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the world's first labour state 'Paris Commune' under the banner of the Paris Communion Committee November 28 (which is also the 200th birthday of the great leader and teacher of the world proclaimer class Frederick Engels) from 12 pm to 5 pm.

In this committed comprised various communist revolutionaries, socialists, progressive sections :- CPI (ML), Communist Center of India, Swaraj Jan March, Communist Center for Scientific Socialism, Nagarikh Aadhikar Raksha Manch, Shram Mukthi Sanghatan, Communist Chetana Kendr, Janvaadhi Lok Manch.

The article presented by one partner says that "the current economic-social system is suffering today's unconventional crisis lies not in small-fat reforms, but in the movement of revolutionary change that shakes the foundation of this treasonous exploitation system. Without inherited anti-people bureaucracy and radical changes in police system and uprooting the existing man-eating exploiting system, we cannot move forward towards establishment of a new true people's and socialist society system, whereas one in India. There should be a goal of true people's revolution. So today, the labourers, farmers, other hardworking classes, exploited-oppressed groups and oppressed communities and the people's, progressive and revolutionary forces should unite and work to complete the historical task of overthrowing the current system. Surely learning from the bravery and sacrifice of the Paris Communards and their merits and mistakes.

Almost all the speakers kept their words supporting the article and called on the working class to build an exploited publicist and socialist social system in India. Finally, the presidential speech was given by partner Nand Kishore Singh. The end of the program was announced after the singing of Communist International.
