

In Memory of Comrade Khokan Majumdar

Comrade Khokan Majumdar died on May 29, 2017. His original name was Abdul Hamid. He came to Kolkata from the then Pakistan, now Bangladesh. In the year 1946 at the age of 14 he joined as a worker in a Kolkata hospital, and as an active member of Hospital Staff Organisation, he became a member of the communist party unit. He was imprisoned several times for participating in the agitations organised by the communist party. He was sent to Darjeeling for organisational work in 1954. After working in different fields of the organisation he went to Naxalbari according to the direction of the party in 1967, together with Comrades Kanu Sanyal and Khudan Lal Mallik. He worked there in peasants' organisation. He went to China along with Comrade Kanu Sanyal and with other peasant leaders. Despite the initial setback of the Naxalbari movement, he continued his political career with revolutionary conviction and zeal. It is our responsibility to remember him and learn from his entire experiences of 70 years life. He remains as a source of revolutionary inspiration to younger generations.
