

Naxalbari is a Helm of the Struggle to Overthrow the Exploitative System - Asserted by Com. Arvind Sinha

Naxalbari Peasant Martyrs' Memorial Meeting held in Patna

May 25th is the day of 'Historic Naxalbari Peasant Upsurge'. A memorial meeting was organised under the auspices of AIKMKS Bihar Committee.

The meeting was organised on the topic "In the light of the Naxalbari Peasant Revolutionary Uprising - Present Peasants' Struggle, Peasant Liberation". State leaders from various wings - Com. SD Bose, Com. Ashok Baitha, Com. Nandkishore Singh, Com. Shyam Sundar Bhagat and Com. Uday Choudary presided over the meeting.

CPI (ML) CEC member Com. Arvind Sinha emphasized the importance of Naxalbari. The Naxalbari Revolutionary Uprising was a historic peasant revolutionary movement and the struggle played a vital role in carrying forward the legacy of the struggles of Telangana, Tebhaga and Punnappa Vayalar movements. A glorious struggle aimed at changing the present system. Its a revolutionary peasant struggle. He said it is the struggle to overthrow the exploitative system.

AIKMKS Bihar Committee Secretary Com. Ashok Baitha presented the an approach paper prepared by the AIKMKS Bihar Committee.

CPI (ML) Bihar Committee Leaders Com. SD Bose, AIFTU (New) Jharkhand Leader Com. Siyasharan Sharma, Com. Umesh Sinha (Bharatiya Kisan Sabha Bihar Regional joint-Secretary), Com. Baldev Jha (Bihar Kisan Samiti Leader), Com. Ajay Sinha (IFTU (Sarwahara) leader), Com. Sanjay Shyam (Nagarik Adhikar Raksha Manch leader) and others addressed the meeting.

