

Funeral of Comrade Ranjit Singh in Jaipur, and Commemoration Meeting in Jhunjhunu

Comrade Ranjit Singh died at his daughter's house in Jaipur at the age of 87 on the night of 24th of Jan, 2023. He is a senior revolutionary communist in the state of Rajasthan and very well-known in the district of Jhunjhunu. His funeral was performed among his comrades and relatives. As announced by him earlier in Jaipur, his body was handed over to SMS Hospital.

Commemoration Meeting:

On 27-1-2023 morning a commemoration meeting was held at Bhagat Singh Park in Jhunjhunu by CPI (ML), Bhagat Singh Vichar Manch and Krantikari Kisan Union. First, CPI (ML) central committee members, Comrade P.K.Shahi followed by CPI state leader Com. Tara Singh Sidhu paid tributes and placed flowers on the portrait. Later, family members, friends and fellow comrades of Com. Ranjit Ji paid their respects and gave slogans of "Inquilab Zindabad, Ranjit Singh Amar Rahe".

Com. Tara Singh Sidhu presided over the meeting and Com. P.K Shahi in his speech said that the country is in a terrible and difficult situation today....that the working class and the peasantry should fight unitedly to face the growing danger of fascists and the violent attacks of religious fundamentalists in the country. Leaders of various parties paid their tributes to Com. Ranjit Ji in this meeting which was organised by Com. Bhajrang Lal.
