

Red Salutes to Comrade Gangula Narasaiah

Com Gangula Narasaiah, Telangana state committee member of CPI(ML), and Telangana Rythu Coolie Sangham (affiliated to AIKMKS) state executive member passed away on March 14, 2024 at the age of 56.

Com Narasaiah was born in Donpal village of Nizamabad district into a hardworking agricultural family. With the aim of realizing a just society, he organised oppressed classes by leading a 'underground life' as a squad leader during 1990-96.

Subsequently, he became a part of the organising activities of the Rythu Coolie movement. He actively participated in programmes on peoples' issues. Madhava Nagar colony was established in the vicinity of Nizamabad town by continuous efforts collectively to provide shelter to the families of the toiling people.

CPI(ML) Telangana State Committee expresses deep condolences on his demise and extends red salutes to Com Gangula Narasaiah. And our deepest condolences to his family members.

Prasadanna,

Secretary,
CPI(ML) State Committee,
Telangana